

Kensington School is building extraordinary new schools in Glenview and Arlington Heights in the new year. An industry leader in early education, Kensington School is pleased to join these new communities and seeks talented professionals to join our current team of educators. Come learn and teach at one of our current nine locations and then join fellow passionate educators in opening and teaching at our new Glenview or Arlington Heights locations. The Glenview location is scheduled to open fall 2017 and Arlington Heights location in January 2018.

We offer supportive, collaborative teaching environments in classrooms equipped with cutting edge materials and technology. Dynamic, innovative curriculum and purposeful learning is at the heart of what we do. Visit our website, kensingtonschool.com, to take a glimpse into what "Growing Up Kensington" means to us and how you can join our amazing team of educators and leadership.

Kensington School offers both part-time and full-time positions working with infants through kindergartners and provides extensive professional development and many opportunities for advancement. Kensington School currently has nine locations in Elmhurst, Geneva, LaGrange, Naperville, St. Charles, Western Springs and Wheaton. Apply now and build your career at Kensington School, a family led organization that is dedicated to excellence in early childhood education.

Kensington School is proud to be accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), the premier accrediting body for early childhood programs. NAEYC Accreditation recognizes programs providing the highest quality education and care for young children.

Teachers

Teachers at Kensington School are responsible for carrying out what "Growing Up Kensington" truly means. Our teachers develop lesson plans based on our Project Based Learning topics, participate in staff trainings and in-services, utilize Kensington School benchmark assessments, and build lasting relationships with children, parents and colleagues. Our teachers maintain a healthy, safe and positive learning experience for each individual child and ensure compliance with DCFS standards and NAEYC criteria.

Teacher Assistants

Teacher Assistants at Kensington School work alongside our teachers in carrying out what "Growing Up Kensington" means. Teacher assistants are involved with the daily physical care of the children, assist with implementing our innovative curriculum, and build relationships with children, parents and colleagues in an effort to instill a lifelong curiosity and excitement for learning.

Requirements

Teachers

- AA or BA in Early Childhood Education or related field (minimum of 6 credit hours in ECE coursework)
- Minimum one year experience in a licensed early childhood program
- Knowledge, understanding and practical experience in child development
- Excellent oral, written and IT communication skills
- High levels of commitment to high standards
- Motivation, energy and enthusiasm
- A strong passion for young children

Teacher Assistants

- Copy of high school diploma is required
- Knowledge, understanding and practical experience of child development
- High levels of commitment to high standards
- Nurturing and caring manner

Find success at Kensington School with:

- ✓ Rich curriculum resources
- ✓ Well equipped, beautifully designed classrooms
- ✓ Extensive training
- ✓ Strong bonds with colleagues through company sponsored after-hours fun
- ✓ A caring working environment in which every person matters

To learn more about careers at Kensington School, please contact our Human Resources Department—hr@kensingtonschool.com—or download an Employment Application and submit it with your resume. We look forward to hearing from you.